PLAN TO 'FIX' TESTIMONY BARED

Nell Barton Tells of Efforts to Have Miss Warrington's Story Changed

LATTER REFUSED, SAID LOVED FATHER BEST

Girl Swears She Agreed to Reno Trip from Fear of Scandal

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—The government rested at the conclusion of Miss Barton's testimony and a recess was taken. The defense stated it would probably put Diggs and Caminetti on the stand late today or Tuesday. The case will be continued until Tuesday when court adjourns tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Lola Norris completed her testimony this morning in the case of Maury Diggs, charged with violating the Mann white slave law. She was followed on the stand by Martin Beasley, Marcia Warrington's uncle.

Under cross-examination Miss Norris denied knowing before the Reno trip that Diggs and Miss Warrington were intimate. She denied she was in Diggs' office when the other pair engaged in immorality. She denied that Miss Warrington called her a "piker" because she demurred at going to the Grand Hotel in San Francisco with the others. She admitted she told her father and mother that she went with Diggs and Caminetti frequently, but didn't tell their true names.

Miss Norris said she knew she was doing wrong, because she knew Caminetti was married, but excused herself by saying: "I didn't think I was doing wrong. Caminetti any wrong, because time spent with me wouldn't have been spent with her anyway." She denied discussing on the return from Sacramento a possible reconciliation of the men with their wives, and also denied that Miss Warrington said of Caminetti: "If I can't have him no one else will. I'll send him to the penitentiary."

Girls Scared by Threats
"Both men told us their wives were going to sue us for alienation of their husbands' affections," Miss Norris testified. "I said I knew of cases that didn't result that way, but they told us they were so well known it would make a great scandal."

Seated on opposite sides of the rail enclosure while the girl testified were her father, Edward Norris, and Diggs' father, E. I. Diggs. The men glanced at each other frequently and understandingly.

Beasley, Miss Warrington's uncle, who found the quartette at Reno, testified: "I took Marsha in my arms and comforted her. I told her her father had said that all would be forgiven. Then I comforted Miss Norris. Both were in tears." Beasley recounted everything transpiring at the bungalow after the officers arrived. He said the girls continually craved reassurance that all would be forgiven at home. "It was easy to get either a cry or laugh from either girl," he said.

Nell Barton Tells Story
Nell Barton, brought into the case through alleged efforts of Charles B. Harris to have her persuade Miss Warrington to testify falsely regarding the facts in the case, was the next witness. She said: "Harris telephoned me that he wanted to see me in regard to a couple of girls. He said he didn't want me to mention names. I went to his office. Harris and Diggs were there. I said I thought the girls were foolish in going on such an escapade. Harris said, 'They were not fools to do it, but fools to get caught.' Diggs said his wife would swear out warrants against Miss Warrington. Diggs then drew a diagram of the bungalow. He told me the girls occupied one room and the men another. He said if he got out of this he would marry Miss Warrington or do anything else she wanted. Harris said Miss Warrington was to state she paid for her own ticket to Reno. I agreed to see Marsha and tell her these things. I told her, but she said it was too late, that she thought more of her father than of Maury."

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Miss Mignon Hopkins, who left here yesterday for New York on her way to Albany, declared she had no intention of dropping her breach of promise suit against Governor Sulzer, but intended to begin proceedings against the deposed governor on her arrival at the capital. Miss Hopkins, who was accompanied by her sisters, Gladys and Bessie, said her reason for going to Albany to prosecute the suit was that she could not get service on the governor in this state.

Motorcycle Officer Davenport, who has an accurate speedometer on his machine, caught the speed at fifty miles. When Linetum was at the city hall, he protested that his machine would not go that fast.

THE AUXILIARY PLANT BADLY NEEDED

City Officials Argue that Protection of City Demands Passage of Bonds

WATER WORKS IS TAXED TO LIMIT

Should Engine be Put Out of Commission City Would be in a Serious Fix

Between now and Sept. 11 it behooves the people of Santa Ana to inform themselves upon the needs of the Santa Ana city water department. Upon Sept. 11 the voters are to vote upon a proposal to issue $25,000 bonds for the betterment of the department.

The matter has been talked over a number of times in meetings of the City Trustees. Stripped of many details and matters of lesser consideration, the reason the city authorities consider that a bond issue is necessary is that the water plant must be strengthened to meet the growing demands of the city and to provide a safety valve in case any of the machinery now in use for any reason should be put out of commission.

Using every bit of machinery that the city has at the water works, the demands of the city are supplied, but to do so taxes the machinery to its full capacity. Suppose a boiler should blow up or an engine get out of order? That is the argument that is used in favor of the passage of the bonds.

Water Works Superintendent Reid has long contended that the city ought to have an auxiliary plant. With money to be derived from the sale of the proposed bonds an auxiliary plant can be secured, and other needed improvements can be made.

During the month of July the city used 85,630,625 gallons of water, an average of 2,762,500 gallons per day. That means that every day twice and three-fourths the capacity of the small reservoir is forced into the city water mains.

It is not to be supposed that the plant is worked to its full capacity all the time. There are certain hours in each day during the summer, however, when the top-notch capacity is reached. Suppose an engine should go out of commission at that time, and suppose a fire should break out at that or any other time when the plant is out of commission? Those are the strong arguments being presented by those well informed on the situation in the water department. Those are the reasons given by city officials for asking for a bond issue.

NO MOTIVE AS YET FOUND

Under Sheriff Law was at San Juan Capistrano yesterday making further inquiry into the rumors that have been afloat there to the effect that the Mendelson Hotel and the postoffice are to be blown. The officer gained no information of any consequence, and came away with his mind quite well made up that a good deal has been made out of little. There is no question but what two explosions have occurred back of the Mendelson Hotel. The officer could get no trace of a motive. Even the rumors do not intimate the motive.

CHANGES IN PARCELS POST NOW EFFECTIVE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Postmaster General Burleson's much discussed changes in the parcel post regulations became effective today. Hereafter the limit of weight of parcels for delivery in the first and second postal zones will be 20 pounds, instead of 11, as has been the case since the inauguration of the system. Moreover, from now on, the postage rate on parcels exceeding four ounces is to be five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction. One other change which cannot be made use of until cooler weather is that fresh meats and other perishable articles, when inclosed and wrapped as prescribed, may be mailed to offices in both first and second zones. Heretofore they were mailable only in one zone. If the changes result in the profits expected, Postmaster Burleson intends to reduce rates and increase the weight limit next year.

70,000 MILES OF RAIL OPERATED BY PHONES

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Some 70,000 miles of railway have been equipped for telephone train dispatching in the course of six years in the United States and Canada, according to figures compiled by G. H. Heyer, railway telephone engineer of New York. The first telephone dispatching was tried in October, 1907. There are approximately 285,000 miles of railway in the United States and Canada. Train movements from 1851 to 1905 were governed by telegraph. Many large roads are now nearly fully equipped, among them being the Lackawanna, New York Central lines, Lehigh Valley and Santa Fe.

"BEST ADVERTISING VALUE THAT EVER CAME FROM THE PRESS," SAYS MR. CORNELIUS

"The special edition of the Santa Ana Register was the best piece of printing ever turned out in the county, and as the writers for the special articles were carefully selected with a view of competency to write on the subjects assigned to them the edition is of more value to the county from an advertising standpoint than any similar publication that has ever come from the press."—Newport News.

The writer of the foregoing, Mr. W. A. Cornelius, is editor of the Newport News and a member of the Associated Chambers of Commerce advertising committee. He has proved himself not only an enthusiastic booster, but a carefully discriminating judge of what is good advertising. His good opinion of the Orange County Quarter Centennial Edition of the Register is the same as that expressed by scores of other well-informed citizens—namely that "THE EDITION IS OF MORE VALUE TO THE COUNTY FROM AN ADVERTISING STANDPOINT THAN ANY SIMILAR PUBLICATION THAT HAS EVER COME FROM THE PRESS."

But in order to get that value the edition must be bought and mailed to people throughout the country.

PLAN TO CAPTURE FUGITIVE PRINCE AT SEA FOILED

SEATTLE, Aug. 15.—A plan to halt the big Canadian liner Empress of Russia at sea and take off Prince Stanislaus Sukowski, carefully worked out by the United States marshal's office and the revenue cutter service, foiled because the commander of the steamship declined to co-operate.

United States District Attorney Schoonover of Los Angeles telegraphed to United States District Attorney Riddell at Seattle asking him to effect the arrest of the Prince if it were possible.

Captain Danwoody of the revenue cutter service, United States Marshal Jacoby and Immigration Inspectors Fisher and Zurbich were called into consultation.

It was found that the Empress of Russia on her way from Vancouver to Victoria would pass close to the San Juan Islands, and that on a previous voyage she had been carried by the tide into American waters. It was planned to have the revenue cutter auxiliary Scout lying in wait off the islands ready to intercept the big liner in American waters and arrest the Prince.

When all the other arrangements had been made, Capt. Beetham of the Empress was asked to veer across the line. He refused pointblank.

Warrant for Frau Melcher

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Immigration officials yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of Clara Melcher at Los Angeles, with directions to the inspectors in that city to hold her in connection with charges against Stanislaus Sukowski, a former Austrian army officer, who departed for the Orient yesterday from Vancouver with his bride, formerly Miss Marie Louise Freese, daughter of a wealthy Los Angeles family. The woman will be used as the chief witness against Sukowski if he is brought back to this country to face charges of violating the white slave law.

HUSBAND SLAYER IS PAROLED TO SOCIETY WOMAN

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—District Attorney Fredericks agreed today to parole Mrs. Leah Delmont, the young Belgian woman who killed her husband, to Mrs. Charles Wellington Rand, a wealthy society woman. Mrs. Delmont is in a serious condition mentally and physically. Mrs. Rand, who offered, following the murder, to become the woman's sponsor, accepts the responsibility, and will place her in a hospital under a physician's care.

Mrs. Delmont killed her husband, Louis, when he tried to force her to return to an immoral life for his financial benefit.

WOMAN IS STATE BAKERY INSPECTOR

TACOMA, Wn., Aug. 15.—After gaining for Tacoma the soubriquet of "Spotless Town," through her activities as food and market inspector, Miss Arizona B. Wimple, a graduate of the University of Michigan, today assumed the office of state bakery and sanitary inspector to which she was appointed by Governor Lister in the hope that she would attain the same degree of success in the state as she did in Tacoma. Publicity was the weapon that so materially aided Miss Wimple in bringing about radical reforms in Tacoma. During her two years of service in Tacoma Miss Wimple was greatly aided by the newspapers which published details of her reports. Stores and establishments which were not up to the mark in these reports found their business dwindling and were forced to meet every requirement. Within six months after taking the position in Tacoma the food purveyors vied with each other in maintaining clean, sanitary establishments and "pure" stocks.

MEAT FAMINE THREATENS COUNTRY

Washington Official Says Grave Shortage in Home and Foreign Supply

DROUTH HURRIES CRISIS APPROACHING FOR YEARS

Foreign Cattle Attacked by Contagious Disease Which May Bar Imports

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—That America not only faces a famine in domestic meat, but that stringent laws against importation may bar the meat of other countries necessary to fill the needs here is the declaration of Dr. D. A. Ramsay, chief of inspection of the federal bureau of animal industry. He declares the situation is critical.

Drought in the west and southwest, says Dr. Ramsay, is hurrying a crisis which has been approaching for years. Simultaneously the live stock of Australia, New Zealand, Argentine and elsewhere, our only source of outside supplies, have developed contagious diseases.

"The drought in the southwest is most serious," said Ramsay. "It means that Mexican grass-fed cattle heretofore driven to middle western fattening corrals will now have no haven. The visible supply of beef in the stricken section is now being sold in the open market. The later result will be that prices will soar."

Ramsay estimates that the corn crop will be not more than fifty per cent of the normal. Officials generally see no remedy.

NO SOLUTION YET REACHED

New York Still Possesses Two Governors—Sulzer Refuses to Give Up

ALBANY, Aug. 15.—Lieut. Gov. Glynn today demanded of Sulzer the surrender of the executive offices as a result of the legislature's impeachment. Receiving Glynn's written demand at 11 o'clock, Sulzer refused to state his probable answer. Both factions want a quick court settlement.

Mrs. Sulzer is reported to be improving today, but no definite statement of her condition has been issued.

Glynn and his attorneys held a conference at the state house today. It is understood they will ask the supreme court this afternoon to restrain Sulzer from acting as governor. Sulzer's attorneys have completed the reply to Glynn's demands.

The secretary of state has announced that he will recognize Glynn as the governor. Each claimant possesses one of the state seals.

WOMEN VOTERS TO MEET IN SAN FRANCISCO

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—San Francisco will be the scene of the next convention of the National Council of Women Voters. At the meeting yesterday it was voted to hold a convention in 1915. THINKS SAN FRANCISCO WILL GET DRY DOCK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—That the new naval drydock for California will be located at Mare Island is the belief of Congressman Curry after seeing Secretary of the Navy Daniels yesterday.

Congressman Curry is a Mare Island enthusiast, and claims that recent investigations show that ample depth for a drydock can be secured below the present Mare Island navy yard site. He states that Secretary Daniels was much impressed with the location and equipment of Mare Island yard, and that the prospect for adding the drydock to the other facilities is bright.

BRUNTON MAY BE CANDIDATE

Reported that He Has Been Asked by Progressives to Enter the Race

Prof. Delbert Brunton, principal of the Fullerton Union High School, may be a candidate for county superintendent of schools. This morning the Los Angeles Times Fullerton correspondent had the following:

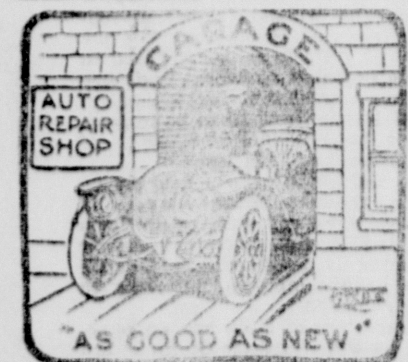

"A number of leading Progressive Republicans of Santa Ana, Fullerton, Placentia and other points have urged that Brunton, principal of the Fullerton Union High School, to become a candidate for county school superintendent. Mr. Brunton says he has the matter under consideration but has arrived at no decision."

Inquiry of a number of Santa Ana Progressives failed to discover any of them who knew anything about any Santa Anans having taken up the matter with Brunton. They knew nothing of the proposed candidacy.

If Brunton runs he will probably be opposed by County Superintendent of Schools R. P. Mitchell, though as yet Mitchell has not stated that he is going to be a candidate for election. However, it seems to be taken for granted that he will. As to that, the same conjecture is entertained concerning all of the county officials now in office. There has been an undercurrent of talk here that some of the women of the county might bring out a candidate from among their number for this office.

It is early in the game to be talking candidates, perhaps, but nevertheless there is considerable talk. It seems to be generally expected that Will Jerome will be out for auditor, and that Sheriff Rudbeck, City Marshal Jernigan, H. A. Wassum and possibly Constable C. E. Jackson are to be counted upon as likely candidates for sheriff.

AN ORANGE COUNTY TOMATO BUSH

About 1200 Acres at Fullerton in Tomatoes

FULLERTON, Aug. 14.—The tomato crop of this section will be heavy this season. The acreage in the Fullerton district is 1200, about the same as last year. The season will open September 15, and two or three companies will ship from this part of the county. The California Vegetable Union, which handles a large part of the Fullerton crop, is getting its packing houses in Fullerton and Placentia in readiness for moving the new crop. The annual tomato shipments from the Fullerton district average from 175 to 250 carloads each season.

TWO MILLION DOLLARS FOR THE LOCAL ORANGE GROWERS

Citrus Men in the "East of the River" District, Olive, Villa Park, El Modena, Orange, Tustin, Have Great Season

Orange News: Better than two million dollars will find its way to the growers of the "east of the river" district of Orange county, that district running from Olive to Tustin, as a result of the marketing of the citrus crop of the present season.

This is one of the evidences that the citrus section about Orange is the greatest in the world, and that it is having the best season in its history.

In the face of the fact that California is this year marketing one-half of a normal crop, the district about Orange is sending forth probably one-fourth more than a normal crop, and is receiving prices for it that make an orange orchard resemble a flock of gold mines.

The frost of January, which cut down the state crop one-half, but left the district about Orange practically untouched, is largely responsible for the fancy figures being received, and its situation in the frostless belt is responsible for the quality of fruit that is being put out this year. From this combination of circumstances the local growers are reaping a gleaming harvest and padding their bank rolls on every corner.

It has been a great year for the seven associations of the Sunset Fruit Exchange. Manager D. E. Huff estimates that the exchange handles 75 per cent of the fruit in the "east of the river" section. He figures that season, the bulk of the crop going to the eastern markets.

W. H. Allen, of 339 East Commonwealth avenue, has a best-of-the-bush ten feet in height, one of the largest and heaviest producing bushes ever seen in the county. July 24, 124 days after the vine was planted, large, fine tomatoes were picked and it is producing right along. Unless the fruit should be nipped by frost Mr. Allen says he can pick tomatoes from any day in the year. He reports that four tomatoes from another bush of the same variety weighed two pounds.

The exchange estimate this season is 1275 cars of oranges and lemons. Allowing the exchange a million and three-quarters on its crop and giving one-quarter of the crop to the independent, it is easy to see where the "east of the river" district pulls down its two millions and more.

The exchange is at present moving an average of five cars of Valencia daily and three cars of lemons weekly. There remain about 350 cars of Valencia to go forward.

The market, though easier than in June, is still good and holds much better than this time last year. The trees throughout the district are in splendid shape, showing little or no effects from the frost that prostrated neighboring districts, and there is every reason to expect a successful season next year.

The "east of the river" section, comprising Olive, Villa Park, El Modena, Orange and Tustin, produces about half the citrus crop of Orange county.

MRS. FOLTZ URGED FOR POLICE JUSTICE
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—Friends of Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, attorney-at-law, president of the Woman's Million Club and prominent in political and club circles, are urging the Board of Supervisors to appoint her police judge to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Judge H. H. Rose to the magistracy.

The supervisors have under consideration the names of six or seven men for the position, but Mrs. Foltz is the only woman being considered.

"I am not seeking the police judgeship," said Mrs. Foltz last night, "but my club women friends and others are urging my name for the place. If appointed I would accept in order to demonstrate that a woman is fully competent to serve the public in a judicial capacity."

CHILD WITHOUT SHOES IS EXEMPT

New Law Makes Provision for Those Forced to Work for Living

Los Angeles Examiner: No children in the state of California will be forced to go to school if they have no shoes to wear, no food in their stomachs and not sufficient clothes to keep them warm.

No longer will a child be prevented from working if his father has deserted his mother.

Provisions applicable to these conditions were contained in the new child labor law, which is now in effect.

August 31, 1912, E. J. Lickley, supervisor of truancy of the Los Angeles city schools, in a public statement, called attention to serious defects in the child labor law and as a result it was corrected at the last session of the legislature.

According to Supervisor Lickley, California now has the best child labor law in the United States. Several new provisions were inserted in the law. Among its provisions are:

No child under eighteen years of age may work longer than eight hours a day.

All children under sixteen years of age must get a work permit from the office of the Supervisor of Truancy; in Los Angeles this office is at 711 Security building.

Children from twelve to fifteen years of age may get a work permit from the supervisor if the father has deserted the mother or if there is no other means of earning a livelihood for the family.

All children, in order to get work permits, must have graduated from the eighth grade of grammar school or else attend night school.

Employers of children under eighteen years of age shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in every room where minors are employed, a written or printed notice stating the hours of work per day for each day of the week required of such minors.

Work permits must be kept on file by employers for inspection.

A fine of not less than $50, nor more than $200 and imprisonment for not more than sixty days is provided for violation of the law.

SKULL BROKEN AT WHITTIER IN FALL FROM AN OIL WAGON

Last night City Marshal Jernigan received a telephone message from Dr. Stokes of Whittier stating that a man named C. L. Gibson had fallen from an oil wagon at Whittier and that he was in the Whittier hospital with a fractured skull. The man was in his senses part of the time, and had stated that he was employed by J. Hart, who is at work on the county highway contract on West Fifth street. Jernigan located Hart and told him of the accident. Hart said that he had started Gibson for Los Angeles yesterday driving a four-mule team to a wagon. It is understood that Gibson is a laborer who came here recently from Los Angeles to work on the paving job.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil: Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Mateer's Drug Store under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine, it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.—Advertisement.

BRINGS SUIT AGAINST ALLEGED FILM TRUST

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 15.—Charging that the General Film Company of New York is a monopoly in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, Joseph H. Simplicher, as assignee of the Claims of the Lake Shore Film & Supply Company of Cleveland, yesterday filed suit in the federal court here asking for $203,000 damages under the triple-damage provision of the law.

The petition charges that the business of the Lake Shore Film & Supply Company, which rented films and projecting machines throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan, has been practically ruined by the monopolistic methods of the General Film Company.

The petition says that in 1898 a combination of manufacturers, who owned practically all American patents on projecting machines, was organized under the name of the Motion Picture Patent Company, a New Jersey corporation.

$3,000 PRIZES FOR AMATEUR MUSICIANS

Brass Band Tournament to be Interesting Feature of the State Fair

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 15.—A brass band tournament for prizes totaling close to $3,000 will be the big attraction at the State Fair on Sunday, Sept. 14, being the second annual musical contest conducted by the State Agricultural Society. A number of bands have already entered and others will have until Sept. 1 to send their entries to J. L. McCarthy, secretary of the State Agricultural Society, Sacramento.

Professional bands are barred from the contest, but there is a wide range for amateurs. The classification of bands eligible for entry are those whose members do not make the major part of their livelihood from the playing of music. The different classes of bands will make it possible for small town musicians to play in a separate contest from those of the larger cities. The big contest, which is known as class A free-for-all, will consist of not less than 20 or more than 25 pieces. The purse of $1,100 is divided as follows: First prize, $500; second, $300; third, $200; fourth, $100.

The class B bands are to be from towns of 15,000 to 60,000 population and are to consist of not less than 25 or more than 30 pieces. Boys' and girls' bands from any of the larger cities may enter this class. The purse of $825 is divided as follows: First prize, $400; second, $250; third, $100; fourth, $75.

The class C bands will come from towns under 15,000 population and are to consist of not less than 20 or more than 25 pieces. The $325 purse is divided as follows: First prize, $100; second, $250; third, $100; fourth, $75.

The music for the different classes of bands has been divided into different grades so that a band from a small town may enter the free-for-all in class A. Should these musicians feel that they can compete against some of the crack bands of the larger cities, Class A bands must play music from grades 2 to 5, class B bands from grades 2 to 4, and class C bands from grades 1 to 2.

INDUSTRIAL WELFARE COMMISSION

The act creating the State Industrial Welfare commission known as the "Minimum Wage" commission provides that it shall consist of five members, at least one of whom shall be a woman, two of whom shall serve for one year, one for two years, one for three years and one for four years. They will draw no salaries but will be allowed ten dollars per diem while performing official duties.

Every person, firm or corporation must furnish any and all reports or information the commission may require for the purposes of the act. Free access shall be allowed the commission to any place of employment and to books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents or papers relating to employment of women and minors.

Employers must keep a register of names, ages and addresses of women and minors employed. A minor is defined as a person of either sex under eighteen years.

If, after investigation, the commission finds in any occupation, trade or industry that the wages are inadequate to supply the cost of proper living, or that hours or conditions are prejudicial to health, morals or welfare, it may organize a "wage board," composed of an equal number of representatives of employers and employees, and a chairman selected by the commission.

The wage board shall investigate and report estimates of a minimum wage, proper hours and conditions.

The commission will then have power to fix the minimum wage, the maximum hours, and standard of conditions.

No such orders of the commission shall become effective before April 1, 1914. Special minimum wage certificates may be issued for those physically defective when circumstances warrant.

Findings of fact by the commission shall be conclusive.

"As a people we cannot afford to let any group of citizens or any individual citizen live or labor under conditions which are injurious to the common welfare.

"We must protect the crushable element at the base of our present industrial structure.

"We hold that minimum wage commissions should be established in the nation and in each state to inquire into wages paid in various industries and to determine the standard which the public ought to sanction as a minimum; and we believe that, as a present installment of what we hope for in the future, there should be at once established in the nation and its several states, minimum standards for the wages of women, taking the present Massachusetts law as a basis from which to start and on which to improve.

"We stand for a living wage. Wages are sub-normal if they fail to provide a living for those who devote their time and energy to industrial occupations. The monetary equivalent of a living wage varies according to local conditions, but must include enough to secure the elements of a normal standard of living—a standard high enough to make morality possible, to provide for education and recreation, to care for immediate members of the family, to maintain the family during periods of sickness, and to permit of reasonable saving for old age."—Excerpts from Theodore Roosevelt's "Confession of Faith."

ASSISTING THE JURY

A comment by Judge Van Fleet, in a notorious trial now in progress at San Francisco recalls a comment by Judge West in a similar notorious trial in this county. Judge West's comment, to the effect that the demeanor of the witness was modest, resulted in an order from a higher court for a retrial of the case. But that was before some common-sense Progressive amendments to the constitution, as relating to court procedure had been adopted. In other words Judge West got Progressive too soon.

Judge Van Fleet's comment was decidedly more Progressive than Judge West's. The San Francisco Federal judge talked right out in meeting. "The proof is entirely sufficient on the question of the purchase of the tickets," said Judge Van Fleet; it is merely a question of reasonable proof and there is plenty of it here that the tickets were bought." Then the judge added that the question was one for the jury to decide.

In view of what happened to Judge West, as a result of his mild comment, it is curious to speculate what might have happened, especially before the recent amendments to the constitution, to a trial judge in the state courts of California who should first state that the testimony adduced was sufficient to prove a certain point and then add that it was for the jury to decide whether it was sufficient to prove that point. The possibility of making such a statement even casually from the bench illustrates the much greater freedom of practice in the federal courts.

Yet even this freedom stops short of the degree of comment upon the evidence permitted to a judge in England. There the judge may not merely observe that the evidence on a certain point is obviously conclusive, but he may even argue his own opinion of the effect of the evidence in a matter where it is conceded to be inconclusive. The final decision is with the jury in any case, except when it goes so far that the judge is authorized to set aside the verdict. But the British judge is permitted almost to dominate, and the American federal judge is permitted to assist the jury, while the American state judge is compelled by tradition, if not by law, to sit back as a mere umpire of a game. The test of results as well as reason seems to vindicate the procedure of the federal courts.

RECENT EVENTS PROVE THE

VALUE OF CAREFUL BANKING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—W. A. Beasley, bank attorney and stockholder of San Jose, declares that the stability of California's banks as demonstrated by recent events, should be taken as an effective object lesson of the value of careful banking methods. "It has been proved that the banks of this state are sound—that our financial status is as sound as it is anywhere else in the country, and sounder than in many places," says Beasley in an interview. "The public should not fail to appreciate the importance to the state's welfare of this stable situation. Further, the public should appreciate that it is careful and judicious banking that assures security in periods of stringency such as we have been passing through.

"The banks of California were preparing for some time to meet the tight conditions that came. When they did come we were all prepared."

Mr. Beasley urges that State Bank Superintendent W. R. Williams should be given a considerable share of the credit for the gratifying situation.

"Williams' policy has been that of rigid inspection ever since he took charge of the office two years ago," explains Beasley, "and I think he deserves much praise for his work in hunting out weaknesses and correcting them. Williams undoubtedly helped much toward having the banks ready for the 'silent panic'.

"The work that Williams has been doing for California might easily be ranked with the splendid work the Railroad Commission is doing. He has, as a matter of fact, not been given the credit due him.

"Williams enforced the old law as it read in the statutes. The amendments enacted by the recent legislature relates some of the unreasonable limitations of that act and at the same time retains strict regulation by the state. Members of the banking committee that was at Sacramento have told me that they regard California's banking laws now to be the best of any in the Union. Superintendent Williams was instrumental in the reforming of the act."

PRECAUTIONS TO PREVENT

ELECTION OF FOREIGN POPE

ROME, Aug. 15.—The possibility of the election of a foreign pontiff to succeed Pope Pius, in the event of his death, is to be eliminated as far as is possible at the coming consistory for the elevation of new cardinals. Although the date set for this calling together of the members of the Sacred College has not yet been announced, preparations are steadily under way. Should the Pope feel at any time that his health might steadily grow worse, the consistory will be summoned immediately. Otherwise, it may not be held until October in order to spare the aged Pontiff the fatiguing labor it would involve during the hot season.

From high Vatican dignitaries it was learned today that Pope Pius has consented to take the advice of a majority of his counselors and remove the possibility of the election by the Sacred College of a successor other than an Italian. His Holiness, it was declared today, has been convinced that such a contingency would be most unfortunate at the present time.

Pope Pius has dedicated his entire pontificate to the establishment of great religious reforms inside the church. Were he to be followed immediately by a foreign pontiff, he is said to have been convinced that the church would be plunged into political entanglements that would probably result in his religious reforms being forgotten before they would have time to become permanently established. It is better, he is said to believe, that the church postpone the solving of its political questions until it has strongly entrenched the recent religious reforms.

At the present time the Sacred College consists of 27 foreign cardinals and 32 Italians. While this gives the latter a little majority, the margin is regarded generally as being too narrow to insure against the election of a foreign pope. For this reason the coming consistory, it was learned today, will result in a substantial increase in this majority.

In addition to announcing the creation of Mendes Bello, patriarch at Lisbon, whose name has been held in pectore since November, 1911, the Pope will include in the list of new Italian cardinals, it is understood, Monsignor Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna; Monsignor Toni, recalled some two years ago as papal nuncio to Portugal; Monsignor Coppell, former vice regent of the vicar general of Rome, as well as one or two of the personal chamberlains of the Pope.

HUNTING OF COBRAS

IS KITCHENER'S SPORT

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 15.—As a relaxation from the cares of his duties as British agent-general of Egypt, Lord Kitchener has taken up snake hunting. A few days ago when it was reported that a 12-foot cobra had been seen near the Gezira Sporting Club's grandstand the native police and keepers were ordered to kill it. They made one attempt but fled before his snakeship. Lord Kitchener heard of it and sent for a snake-charmer. On the promise that the famous soldier would personally attend to the snake when it should appear, the native began his whistling. Soon, to the horror of the bystanders, not one reptile, but six crawled from under the stand. The natives promptly bolted, but Lord Kitchener, with four of his aides, waded in with stout cudgels, and after an exciting fight dispatched the snakes. Kitchener was so pleased with the afternoon's sport that he has permanently retained the snake-charmer on his staff and has spent many "pleasant" afternoons hunting cobras.

POMONANS TO BOOST
POMONA, Aug. 15.—Preparations have been launched for a monster booster celebration to be held in Ganesha Park on the afternoon and evening of September 4. A prominent feature of the gathering will be the burning of a huge wooden hatchet. This ceremony will signify the end of all knuckling in Pomona and the birth of a new "pull together" spirit which is expected to bring new records in advancement.

Tustin Frost Protection League
At a meeting of the Frost Protection League held recently, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

No Recall for Schumacher

I see some one talks of having the "recall" on Supervisor Schumacher. Ha, ha, ha. That joke is rich enough to make a brindle heifer swallow her cud. I'd as soon think of making the Santa Ana river run from Yorba to Corona. It simply "can't be did." I heard a man say the other day: "We need a complete house-cleaning at the county seat." In other respects I know that fellow to be a disgruntled ass, spelled with a capital "A." He is so out of joint with all humanity that he almost has fits when his mother-in-law comes for a month's visit. I have just been looking over the group of county officials printed in the Register's magazine edition and I fail to see one criminal countenance in the lot, and I am quite an expert on "faceology." My heart actually swells with pride when I inspect the bunch, for they are not only bright and intelligent, but are really the handsome herd. Get down your copy of the magazine—provided you have not done your duty and sent it to some friend in the east, and if you have got up to the Register office and get another—and scan the faces o'er. There are 22 of them staring at you from unflinching eyes. Publishing the "thumb" prints of the county officials in a group was a happy thought with the Register and this fact alone that the county is ably and intelligently governed should convince the skeptical minded that Orange county is managed and controlled on a safe and sane basis.

Down in Mexico they can start an insurrection or a recall with the least cause or justification, but in a country like Orange County, where crop failures are a thing the oldest inhabitant can't remember, where every man gets exact justice meted out to him according to his deserts, and where land valuations are climbing up the ladder, rung by rung, and where every man is so well satisfied with his conditions that he hasn't time to get jealous of his neighbor, there is positively no chance to wedge in a recall, and especially on an official so capable and sincere as Mr. Schumacher.

Party for Guests

A very pretty afternoon party was given yesterday by Mrs. R. H. English at her home at 108 South Main street in honor of her house guests, Mrs. Arthur Priest and daughter, Miss Annis, and Mrs. Ernest White and daughter, Miss Alicia, all of Los Angeles. A decorative scheme of pink and white was artistically used, cut flowers and ferns being in abundance. Fancy work, whist, music and delightful conversation were enjoyed during the afternoon. Dainty refreshments of sherbet, cake and fruit were served. The table was graced by a handsome basket of luscious fruit.

Mrs. English's guests aside from her house guests were Mesdames Rembert, Pomeroy, Whitehead, Stewart, Brawshaw, McClain and S. M. White.

Will Camp on Island

A party made up of George Paul, Maurice McElree, Ellis House and Verne House leaves next Sunday afternoon for a vacation to points in Ventura county. The boys expect to go to Anacapa Island about twenty miles off the coast from Ventura and there spend two weeks in hunting, fishing and mountain climbing. Most of the time will be spent in "roughing it." The boys are expecting to have a great trip.

For Graduate Nurses

The nurses of the local hospital were entertained last evening at a party given by Miss Irene Miller at her home, 569 West Fifth street, in honor of this year's graduates from the training class at the hospital. Japanese decorations were used. Progressive games and music were enjoyed during the evening. Miss Liebermann was awarded the first prize in the games and Miss Walkinshaw the consolation prize. Two course refreshments were served.

This year's graduates are Misses Walkinshaw, Liebermann, Spahr and Morse. Miss Miller's guests were the nurses from the hospital.

Surprise Party for Son

A very pleasant surprise party was given last evening by Mrs. J. D. Leake at her home on East First street in honor of her son, Samuel. Cut flowers were used in the beautiful decorations of the home. The guests enjoyed games and music during the evening. At the close, delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Leake. Those who enjoyed the evening were Ruth Chesley, Orfa Chesley, Neva Armstrong, Mildred Henniger, Noel Woodward, Thomas Willits, Louis Wilks, George Smith, Gerald Board, Albert Stice, Hollis Leake and Samuel Leake.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Auditorium
The Auditorium certainly deserved the big audiences they had last night, for they gave one of the best shows ever put on in a vaudeville house in this city.

The pictures were fine and every detail was clearly brought out in the showing of them. The Animated Weekly showed a number of intensely interesting happenings the world over.

Of the vaudeville program there was no number that was not as good as may be found in any of the large city houses. In fact, the management states that most of its attractions are secured through the big circuit exchanges.

"Chicken" Jones won the house at the very beginning of his act. He sang the late favorite, "When the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," and the audience vigorously applauded. His second song was "Well, I Swan," a typical "Tuba" song, and he finished with his famous "Chicken" song that has earned for him his funny sobriquet over all the big circuits.

The Masons did a very clever little character change skit. They are quite "fitching" and have good voices. The dainty little "Quaker" song was the very best thing in the act, although it was all good.

The Voerg Brothers were a decided "hit." They are good musicians; play a number of different instruments and introduce a great deal of fun into their work. Their saxophone duets roused the audience to quite a pitch of enthusiasm.

FINE PROGRAM GIVEN BY SONS OF VETERANS

The program given by the Sons of Veterans of Santa Ana at the G. A. R. encampment at Huntington Beach last night was a decided success. A. B. Paul of Santa Ana states that the veterans were highly pleased with the entertainment that was furnished.

BIBLE SCHOOL FOR SANTA ANA PEOPLE

An item of interest to the Christian people of Santa Ana is the announcement of a Bible school for the study of the Word of God, that is planned to be a permanent institution in the Christian work of the city, and to be of interest and help to all, regardless of distinctions. The Bible school will be conducted by Rev. William Thompson of this city and H. W. Lee of Garden Grove. For the present, one session each week will be held on Wednesday night, at the Immanuel Church, corner of Sixth and French streets.

It is desired that all who understand that a cordial invitation is extended to every one that desires to pursue a close and careful study of the Word of God to attend. The topics will be announced later.

To make the Bible school as efficient as possible arrangements are being made to bring to the assistance of the school from time to time other teachers known to be strong in the exposition of the Word of God.

GROVE SCHOOLS TO BEGIN SEPTEMBER 8

Garden Grove News: The public schools of Garden Grove will open on Monday, Sept. 8. Every preparation has been made for a successful year. It is expected that the attendance will be the largest ever.

S. R. Fitz has been retained as principal. Under his administration of several years the schools have grown in numbers and in efficiency of work. He resides on his own place near town and needs no word of commendation to our people. Eight other teachers have been engaged to assist him in the various departments.

Miss Elizabeth Hidden will have charge of music and drawing in all departments. She lives in our midst and has had a university and also a Normal course. Miss Agnes M. Christensen, who has been for two years in charge of the primary department, will continue in the same position. The other teachers are as follows: Miss Mary L. Cox, who has been here for three years already; Miss Pearl Crutchfield, who comes from the principalship at Magnolia; Miss Hazel Pliny, a Normal graduate from Los Angeles; Miss Grace Allen of Santa Ana, who is a graduate of the Santa Ana High School; Miss Bertha Hill of Los Angeles, who taught last year at Alamitos, and Miss Mabel Young of Tustin, who last year was teacher at Old Newport.

The assignments to the various departments have not yet been fully made and the announcement is not ready.

A Lively Runaway

Fullerton News: Last Friday a serious runaway happened which might have led to the death of Mr. Collins, who drives the garbage wagon for the city. The team, attached to the heavy wagon used for that purpose, took fright at the early morning train as it came into the depot, and started to run up Spadra street. At one old Fullerton hotel the wagon turned over and in doing so struck the fire plug, knocking it off and causing the water to flow at a terrific rate. On up the street they tore, striking a barber pole, which happened to be in the way, demolishing it. They were finally captured before much damage was done. Mr. Collins luckily escaped with a few bruises.

HAVING A BIG TIME AT CAMP WILKIE

Avalon, August 15, 1913.

I am one of the Santa Ana boys attending the County Y. M. C. A. camp. We left Santa Ana Wednesday, Aug. 6, at 6:45 a. m. At Garden Grove several other fellows joined us. We left San Pedro on the 10 o'clock boat and landed at Avalon about 12 o'clock. The glass bottom boat left for camp about 2 p. m. and got there about 4 p. m. The swimming teacher called for a swim about 4:30.

I am in tent No. 19 with six other boys and a Santa Ana leader. There are two San Bernardino county, three from Los Angeles county and three from Orange county in our tent. Each tent has a name. Ours is "Sun Burn Inn."

We have a store where candy and chewing gum can be purchased. We also have a bank and each fellow is supplied with check books. We have time to swim at 6:15 a. m., 11 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Most all the boys in camp went up Black Jack, which is the highest peak on the island. Half of the boys in camp take a boat to the Isthmus Thursday and the other half on Friday.

Each tent has to wash dishes, or wait on tables or draw water. Our tent has to wait on tables next Saturday.

We break camp early Monday morning and there is no question but what every fellow can truthfully say that he has had "the best time of his life."

ORANGE, Aug. 15.—Miss Helen Cory was honored with another ante-nuptial affair yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the M. E. Ladies' Aid Society at the home of Mrs. S. P. Robb on South Orange street. The social features of the afternoon made their appearance at the close of the business session when the Bible and Berean classes of the Sunday school took charge of the program. A piano duet was rendered by Mrs. E. J. Brown and her daughter Clara. Miss Cory herself sang two solos, accompanying herself on the Hawaiian instrument, the Ukulele. Miss Cory was also the recipient of an abundance of sage advice from some of her friends. Each of the two classes also presented her with a pretty alkaline comfort, Mrs. M. B. Field in behalf of the Bible class and Mrs. J. C. Hoge for the Bereans. In addition to these was a beautiful collection of towels, dollies and other linen pieces. ASKS SCHOOL FOR WEE TOTS

Board of Trade Also Talking About Getting a One-Telephone System

ANAHEIM, Aug. 15.—The local Board of Trade has taken up the matter of the establishment of a kindergarten school in addition to the educational system of this city. It has been heartily endorsed by the Board of Trade and a committee was appointed to meet with the school trustees with the view of having the department for the tiny tots started next month. Another matter that the organization has taken up is that of the one telephone system. Both the Home and the Pacific companies are being patronized by the business men of Anaheim, but it is the opinion of many that one company is sufficient for this city. The matter has been turned over to the public improvements committee.

The Tustin W.C.T.U. resumed its regular meetings Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Shatto's home, after a vacation of six weeks. The attendance was not very large, but many interesting subjects were discussed.

Mrs. Shatto read a portion of the Book of Esther and followed it by prayer. The secretary, Mrs. P. H. Elbel, then read the minutes.

Reports from the different outside meetings to which the union has been invited since its last meeting, were given. A report of the Birch Park, Santa Ana, gathering, and also the one at Anaheim, was given by Mrs. Shatto. A report of the Congress of Reforms was given by Mrs. Elbel. Little Folks Party
The party given last Monday afternoon by Little Veina Ave was the occasion of a very happy afternoon for the little girls who attended. It was her ninth birthday and eight little girls besides herself composed the party. They had a fine time playing games and there were several prizes won. In a flower contest Lillie Robinson won the prize. The donkey prize was won by Marjorie Cranston and the peanut hunt by Helen Stanley. Pink and white decorations were everywhere and the pink and white colors in ice cream and cake also added to the delights of the little girls.

Mrs. John Dwyer has just returned from a very pleasant trip to Los Angeles and Pomona.

ANTY DRUDGE

Mrs. Don't know—"Oh, dear! Oh, dear! What shall I do? Here I am with the biggest washing for months, and there is a great big rust hole in the bottom of my washbowl."

Anty Drudge—"It's just the best thing that ever happened for you. Just throw the washbowl away or make an ash can of it, and wash with this cake of Fels-Naptha Soap I've brought you. Use it in cool or lukewarm water."

You are always ready to use Fels-Naptha Soap. That is a great advantage.

Say you want to wash a few pieces. Just use Fels-Naptha Soap, cool or lukewarm water—they're done in a jiffy without boiling, hard rubbing or hard work.

Same way if you want to remove an accidental grease spot from the floor or wash a window marked by sticky fingers. Fels-Naptha Soap is always ready.

Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The egg market displayed easier tendencies yesterday, with case count offered at 21 cents on the Produce Exchange, and no bid. Canned stock closed 21 bid. It is probable that heavy receipts of local and the arrival of several cars of eastern eggs this week had something to do with the weakness in quotations. However, no reduction of actual prices was recorded.

California cheese was about steady. Butter was unchanged.

Yellow Danvers and silverskin onions have advanced about 25 cents a hundred. First-class stock is quoted at around $1.50 in most instances. The demand has picked up, and receipts are light. The bid for yellow Danvers on the exchange was $1.50 to $1.55.

Potatoes firmed a little; quotations on the Produce Exchange for Highlands were $1.30 bid at $1.40 a hundred. The price on the street ranged around $1.40 to $1.60 for northern stock, and $1.15 to $1.35 for local. Prospects are still for a rather high market this year, although the present supply is pretty good. Sweet potatoes show no particular change, although they came in steadily. The supply is probably sufficient to fill the demand.

Lady Washington beans and pinkies firmed a little.

MONUMENT UNVEILED TO PILGRIM FATHERS

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 15.—Commemorating the departure of the Mayflower 233 years ago today, a monument to the Pilgrim Fathers was unveiled here this afternoon by American Ambassador Page. The memorial, a plain shaft of grey stone, with panels on the sides bearing historical inscriptions, and surmounted by a cupola of marble, stands on the western promenade overlooking the sea and adjacent to the spot where the Mayflower weighed anchor. Funds for its erection were subscribed by members of the Society of Mayflower Descendants in the United States, many of whom attended today's ceremonies. The mayor and other municipal officials received Ambassador Page and the party was escorted to a luncheon at the Royal Pier Pavilion by the Southampton Boy Scouts. As the unveiled American and English colors fell away from the shaft, bands played American and English national anthems.

Ever—Will Arrive Here
at Noon

Reports being received from R. J. Hamilton, who is one of the leaders at the Y. M. C. A. camp at White's Landing, Catalina, indicate that they are having one grand camp and that it is the best and largest assemblage of boys that has ever been held at the island.

The camp fire meetings are especially enthusiastic, the boys taking very keen interest in the studies and stories that are told during this period of the evening.

One especially good feature of this year's camp is that Mr. Anderson, who is physical director of the Pasadena Y. M. C. A., is giving every boy in camp a thorough examination, explaining defects and advising the proper exercise and other special needs for the upbuilding of the affected parts of the body. He is also giving the boys a course of gymnastic drills.

The camp of boys now in session on the island will leave Avalon at 7 a. m. on Monday next and expect to arrive at San Pedro at 5 a. m. There they will board an automobile truck, on which they will journey to Santa Ana, arriving here about 12:30 or 1 o'clock.

Advices from the local officials of the Y. M. C. A. state that there is still room for one or two more older boys who would care to go to camp. The older boys leave the local high school at 6:30 a. m. on next Wednesday morning, traveling on a motor truck as far as San Pedro. This camp will be in session from the 20th to the 30th.

Any boy wishing to go can hand in his name to Chauncey Pond or Harold Henshaw at the Register office or at the County Secretary's house, 1947 West Fifth street. The fare is nine dollars for the two weeks exclusive of the traveling expenses, which is $2.00, making a total of $11.00 for the entire vacation. And he understood that this is really a splendid vacation for any boy. While in camp the boys are under the supervision of experienced Y. M. C. A. leaders and secretaries, and everything is done to make them all comfortable and to enable them to get the most good, both as regards health and morals, out of their sojourn at the beautiful camp-site on the magic isle.

SAYS MODERN LIFE IS GROWING TOO FAST

CARLSBAD, Aug. 15.—Alexander H. Revell of Chicago thinks that modern life is becoming so fast that all the joy of it is being crushed out and that the best of heaven's gifts are being set at naught. He said: "In the great spas of Europe one sees men and women from all parts of the world, nervous, excitable and looking artificially well because their money is spent to hide the blemishes and ravages of life. More wholesome living all around with a certain substance in simplicity would do more for health, comfort and good cheer."

USE OLD RESERVOIR FOR SWIMMING POOL

REDLANDS, Aug. 15.—City Engineer Hincley, on instructions from the city trustees, has filled an abandoned reservoir in Reservoir Canyon with water and turned it over to the boys of Redlands as a swimming pool during the warm weather. On the opening yesterday there were thirty-seven lads in the water, and it is expected fifty to one hundred will use the pool daily.

Next season it is planned to erect a large lake and swimming pool in Sylvan Park.
